PROFILE

I have built a 20-year career in Architecture and I am now willing to keep designing with fewer bricks and mortar and with more bits and pixels.

I want to deliver human-centred digital products that have a big impact on people's lives through design.

I am passionate about drawing on location and I lead walks and workshops with my project Sketchwalk London.

RECOMMENDATION

"I had the pleasure of working closely with Nuno for four years, and I can confidently say that he is an exceptionally competent and hardworking senior architect. Nuno's talent and dedication were evident in every project we collaborated on. His ability to seamlessly transition into the role of a Product Designer (UX/UI) showcases his diverse skill set and adaptability."
